THE WAY TO 3rd KYU

Congratulations on your promotion to 4th Kyu. You are one step before the advanced Kyu level (brown belt). Now I want you to look back and see how far you have come from the day you started karate training. You have come a long way. But at the same time, you should be able to see how far you can go and improve yourself. Remember what I said on the way to 10th Kyu, “Don’t forget the beginner’s mind”. Many people feel that they know a lot when they get to this level. You have to be humble enough to realize that you don’t know anything yet. Nothing can be added to a full bucket.

The following is the list of requirements for you to go to the next level – 3rd Kyu.

Minimum number of classes – 45

Minimum length of training since last grading – 4 months

- body parts in Japanese
- vital point – front
- terminology from previous Kyu levels

History

- Sensei Chojun Miyagi went to Shanghai, China in 1936 for research and to build friendships with Chinese martial artists
- In 1926, Sensei Chojun Miyagi established the Karate KenKyu Club in Naha with masters from other Okinawa karate styles, Chomo Hanashiro, Choyu Motobu, and Kenwa Mabuni
- The purpose of the Karate KenKyu Club was to ensure the preservation of karate as an intangible cultural treasure in Okinawa for all time, to bring the karate community of the island into one cohesive force, to transmit traditional karate to future generations both in Okinawa and elsewhere, and to elevate karate in the eyes of the Japanese, bringing it to the level already enjoyed by judo and kendo.
